Weekend at Birney's

Pentecost Sunday

"The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The account in today's Gospel, taken from the Gospel of John, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts to each other. It is enough to know that, after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

In the context of the feast of Pentecost, this reading reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." As he breathes the Holy Spirit upon them, Jesus sends his disciples to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins.

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people." (loyolapress.com)

Corpus Christi Eucharistic Processions: June 22nd

On Sunday, June 22, you are invited to join all parishioners of the Quo Vadis Domine Family for either of the two Eucharistic Processions immediately following each of the 12:30pm Masses: St. Alfred & St. Frances Cabrini.

For the June 22nd procession we encourage the following:

- Wear any national dress or costume from your home country or heritage, to show the wide diversity and universality of our Catholic faith united around the Eucharist.
- All First Communicants from this year to wear their dress or suit.
- All newly received or baptized adults from this year's Easter Vigil to be part of the procession.
- All members of groups, clubs, organizations, or ministries to be present and/or carry any banner you might have that represents any of the aforementioned.
- All Altar Servers to be present and part of the procession while wearing Server Albs from the Church.
- Volunteers to take turns carrying the four poles of the Canopy which will adorn the Monstrance (sacred vessel which contains the Body of Christ, typically in the form of a large host). If interested, please contact your parish office.

In the event of inclement weather, we'll celebrate a Eucharistic Holy Hour in both St. Frances Cabrini and St. Alfred Church immediately after the 12:30pm Masses.

Congratulations newly ordained priests!

Deacon Pat Bruen, 67, and Deacon Benjamin Schroder, 26, look forward to serving the Lord's people in southeast Michigan as the newest priest in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

On Saturday, June 7, Archbishop Edward J. Weisenburger will ordain transitional deacons Pat Bruen and Benjamin Schroder, who have spent several years preparing through seminary studies and field ministry. The two men will be ordained priests "now and forever," but the two took two completely different paths in their journey to becoming Christ's ministers on earth.

Deacon Pat Bruen, 67, is late-in-life priestly vocation, studying at Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary in Weston, Mass. He graduated from Sacred Heart High School in Dearborn and went on to Spring Arbor College to obtain a bachelor's in health care management and Central Michigan University to earn a master's in database management.

"I was married for 40 years, so I did not have a call when I was younger," Deacon Bruen told Detroit Catholic. "But my longtime friend and now pastor, Fr. Bob McCabe, suggested I pray about it. I thought I was too old, but the Lord had other plans."

Deacon Benjamin Schroder, 26, was working at a hardware store and took a few classes at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit before he first thought he might have a vocation to the priesthood. After graduating from Utica Community Schools' International Baccalaureate program, he wasn't exactly convinced he was destined for the priesthood.

"I attended a vocations night for altar servers that the seminary hosted, and I was pretty confident I wouldn't be a priest until after some seminarians shared their vocation story. The simple realization that God knows what will make me happy, and He also wants me to be happy, helped me a lot in discerning what the Lord was calling me to do."

Please pray for our newly ordained priests and especially our seminarians who have a relationship with our Quo Vadis Domine Family of Parishes: Joe Lennon and Ralph Kaleniecki, Cabrini school graduates, and Dcn. Lizandro Barba, parish son of St. Alfred.

Fin de Semana en Birney's

Domingo de Pentecostés

El tiempo de Pascua concluye con la celebración de hoy, la fiesta de Pentecostés. En Pentecostés celebramos la venida del Espíritu Santo sobre los Apóstoles reunidos en el Cenáculo de Jerusalén. Este acontecimiento marca el inicio de la Iglesia. El relato del Evangelio de hoy, tomado del Evangelio de Juan, también relata cómo Jesús concedió el don del Espíritu Santo a sus discípulos. No es necesario intentar conciliar estos dos relatos. Basta saber que, tras su muerte, Jesús cumplió su promesa de enviar a sus discípulos un ayudante, un abogado, que les permitiría ser sus testigos por todo el mundo.

En el contexto de la fiesta de Pentecostés, esta lectura nos recuerda la conexión esencial entre los dones de la paz y el perdón y la acción del Espíritu Santo. Jesús saluda a sus discípulos con el don de la paz. Luego, Jesús les encomienda continuar la obra que él ha comenzado: "Como el Padre me envió, también yo los envío." Al infundir el Espíritu Santo sobre ellos, Jesús envía a sus discípulos a continuar su obra de reconciliación mediante el perdón de los pecados.

Este Evangelio nos recuerda que la Iglesia está llamada a ser una presencia reconciliadora en el mundo. Esta presencia reconciliadora también debe ser un estilo de vida para los cristianos. En situaciones de conflicto, debemos ser agentes de paz y armonía entre las personas. (loyolapress.com)

Procesiones Eucarísticas del Corpus Christi: 22 de junio

El domingo 22 de junio, estás invitado a unirse a todos los feligreses de la Familia Quo Vadis Domine para cualquiera de las dos Procesiones Eucarísticas inmediatamente después de cada una de las Misas de las 12:30 p.m. en San Alfredo y St. Frances Cabrini.

Para la procesión del 22 de junio los motivamos a lo siguiente:

- Usar cualquier vestido o traje nacional de su país de origen o herencia, para mostrar la amplia diversidad y universalidad de nuestra fe católica unida en torno a la Eucaristía.
- Todos quienes recibieron su primera comunión este año deberán usar su vestido o traje.
- Todos los adultos recién recibidos o bautizados de la Vigilia Pascual de este año serán parte de la procesión.
- Todos los miembros de grupos, clubes, organizaciones o ministerios deben estar presentes y/o llevar cualquier pancarta que puedan tener que represente a cualquiera de los antes mencionados.
- Todos los monaguillos deberán estar presentes y ser parte de la procesión vistiendo las albas de monaguillos de la Iglesia.
- Voluntarios que se turnarán para llevar los cuatro postes del Dosel que adornarán la Custodia (vasija sagrada que contiene el Cuerpo de Cristo, generalmente en forma de hostia grande). Si les interesa, por favor, contacten con su oficina parroquial.

En caso de mal tiempo, celebraremos una Hora Santa Eucarística en las iglesias de St. Frances Cabrini y St.

Alfred inmediatamente después de las misas de las 12:30pm.

¡Felicitaciones a los sacerdotes recién ordenados!

El diácono Pat Bruen, de 67 años, y el diácono Benjamin Schroder, de 26, esperan servir al pueblo del Señor en el sureste de Michigan como el sacerdote más nuevo de la Arquidiócesis de Detroit.

El sábado 7 de junio, el arzobispo Edward J. Weisenburger ordenará a los diáconos transitorios Pat Bruen y Benjamin Schroder, quienes han dedicado varios años a prepararse mediante estudios de seminario y ministerio en el campo. Ambos serán ordenados sacerdotes "ahora y para siempre", pero ambos tomaron caminos completamente diferentes en su camino hacia convertirse en ministros de Cristo en la tierra.

El diácono Pat Bruen, de 67 años, tiene vocación sacerdotal tardía y estudió en el Seminario Nacional Papa San Juan XXIII en Weston, Massachusetts. Se graduó de Sacred Heart High School en Dearborn y asistió a Spring Arbor College para obtener una licenciatura en administración de atención médica y en Central Michigan University para obtener una maestría en administración de bases de datos.

"Estuve casado durante 40 años, así que no tuve un llamado cuando era más joven", declaró el diácono Bruen a Detroit Catholic. "Pero mi viejo amigo y ahora párroco, el padre Bob McCabe, me sugirió que orara al respecto. Pensé que era demasiado viejo, pero el Señor tenía otros planes".

El diácono Benjamin Schroder, de 26 años, trabajaba en una ferretería y tomó algunas clases en el Seminario Mayor del Sagrado Corazón en Detroit antes de pensar que podría tener una vocación sacerdotal. Tras graduarse del programa de Bachillerato Internacional de las Escuelas Comunitarias de Utica, no estaba del todo convencido de estar destinado al sacerdocio.

Asistió a una noche de vocaciones para monaguillos que organizó el seminario, y estaba bastante seguro de que no sería sacerdote hasta que algunos seminaristas compartieron su historia vocacional. La simple comprensión de que Dios sabe qué me hará feliz, y que también quiere que lo sea, me ayudó mucho a discernir a qué me llamaba el Señor.

Por favor, oren por nuestros sacerdotes recién ordenados y especialmente por nuestros seminaristas que tienen una relación con nuestra Familia de Parroquias Quo Vadis Domine: Joe Lennon y Ralph Kaleniecki, graduados de la escuela Cabrini, y el Diácono Lizandro Barba, hijo de la parroquia de San Alfredo.

Dear Friends,

We continue to consider the theme of 'vocation' this June as we progress through this 2025 Jubilee Year as a family of parishes. Once again, please know that on June 20th we'll have a Holy Hour with songs and prayer at St. Mary Magdalen during which we will more deliberately consider this theme. This Sunday I'd like to go one layer deeper in my thoughts and reflections having to do with "vocation" and "vocations":

- The universal call to fullness of life
- The universal call to holiness
- Religious vocations
- Priestly vocations
- All other vocations in the Mystical Body

This phrase — the universal call to holiness — emerged as a catchphrase of sorts from the Second Vatican Council. It was hoped that this phrase would combat the idea that priests and monks and nuns were called to be holy but that it was different for the rest of us.

Another way of looking at this question would be this — who does the Holy Spirit touch in this world? All or just a few? The answer, of course, is all. The Holy Spirit wants to transform all and give them healing, restoration, and peace.

To be holy is to allow this transformation to happen within you. It happens to you and becomes possible when the first layer of vocation is taken care of. It's a process that takes place through Him, with Him, and In Him... Isn't this an interesting question to reflect on there at home — is holiness possible for the non-Christian?

Think of Jesus on the cross "Father, forgive them..." This is possible for him because He saw all possible outcomes... you and me embracing to the core the great saying of Leon Bloy — "The only real sadness, the only real failure, the only great tragedy in life, is not to become a saint."

In Faith,
Fr. Grayson

FOR IN ONE SPIRIT,
WE WERE ALL BAPTIZED
INTO ONE BODY

Nursing Home

Homebound Ministry

There is a growing number of parishioners who are unable to worship with us, but who long to stay connected to the parish through the Eucharist. To meet the requests, we receive from the homebound and those in nursing homes, we are always in need of parishioners to join the parish team of lay ministers who bring Communion to their home or nursing facility. ## Tuesday Travelers Schedule

Tuesday, June 24: Midland

We'll begin with a tour of the Alden B. Dow Home and Studio. Alden B. Dow was an American architect based in Midland, Michigan and known for his contributions to the style of Michigan Modern. An included lunch will be at Lucky's Steakhouse. Following lunch we will experience the Dow Gardens, a 110-acre display of annuals and perennials and punctuated by distinctive bridges, children's garden, towering pines and delightful water features.

The day will end at Whiting Forest Canopy Walk, the nation's longest canopy walk, 1,400 feet long, soaring up to 40 feet above the ground. The bus leaves Cabrini at 6:30am and returns at 6:45pm. Cost: $146.00.

July 29-30: Shipshewana, Indiana

This one is overnight and features wonderful Amish/Mennonite dining and accommodations at the Blue Gate Garden Inn in Shipshewana. On day one we will visit Linton's Enchanted Gardens, Dutch Country Market and Teaberry Wood Products. On day two we will make a stop at the Rise 'n Roll Bakery, Shipshewana Flea Market, visit a local Amish farm for a haystack lunch and end the day with time to shop in downtown Shipshewana. Cost: $375 per pp double occupancy. Bus departure and return TBD

Thursday, August 28, A Day in the D

A two hour guided tour through Detroit will take us to Belle Isle where we'll get a sneak peek at what's blooming at the new Oudolf Garden Detroit and a few of the Island favorites. Tour will include other new sites in Detroit, quirky art installations and a few familiar favorites. Lunch at Sinbad's, free time at Detroit's River Walk and end with a 1 hour narrated cruise on the Diamond Jack river vessel. Bus departs at 9:00 am and returns at 4:30 pm. Cost: $133.00

Tuesday, November 11: The Parade Company and The Whitney in Detroit

We'll take a behind-the-scenes look at the magic of America's Thanksgiving Parade, learning the history of the parade, and getting an up-close look at floats, the world's largest collection of paper-mache heads and the costume shop. Lunch is at Sinbad's on the Detroit River. After lunch, we will take a guided stroll through the Whitney Museum while sipping on Champaigne. The bus departs at 9:00 am and returns at 3:30 pm. The cost is $116.00 (includes lunch).

All bus trips leave from St. Frances Cabrini Church parking lot. To reserve a spot on any trip or get more details, stop by, or call Therese in the parish office, (313) 436-0201 email: ttardiff@cabriniparish.com.

Flyers with complete details on each trip are found in the church, on the Cabrini parish website. www.cabriniparish.org/events, or in the Parish Office.

EUCCHARISTIC HOLY HOUR

Friday, June 20, 2025
7:00pm
St. Mary Magdalen

Join us for an evening of Praise & Worship, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Preaching, and Fellowship.
Private Confession from 6:00-7:00pm

Jubilee Pilgrimage

July 19 | Our Lady of Hope Cemetery | 4:30pm

One of the most important observances of a Jubilee Year is the pilgrimage, making our way through the world so as to appreciate the beauty of creation, recall the need for silence and recollection, form friendships with fellow travelers, and seek Christ, who is the way and the gateway to eternal life, in every encounter and situation.

4:30pm: Confession and a self-lead pilgrimage around
Our Lady of Hope Cemetery (optional)

5:30pm: Mass at Our Lady of Hope Cemetery

6:30pm: Depart for a reception at St. Alfred Church
(food & drinks)

Full participation in the pilgrimage will allow the faithful to obtain a plenary indulgence. To better understand the significance, please scan the QR Code.

Christian Service

ChristNet Drop-In Center | June 18 | 9:00am

We visit ChristNet in Taylor to cook and serve a hot meal the third Wednesday of each month from 9:30am-1:30pm.

If you would like to assist call Ann Raiche at (313) 433-9776. Our next service date is Wednesday, June 18!

Manna Meal Soup Kitchen | June 23 | 6:15am-11:00am

We provide four volunteers to prepare and serve a simple bagged lunch and sandwiches to more than 100 men, women and children.

We meet outside Holy Family Hall, transportation is provided. Call Joyce McCabe, 313-506-6154, to volunteer to help. Monetary donations will help the group buy fresh fruit.

St. Christine Soup Kitchen | July 1 | 8:30am-2:30pm

Volunteers are needed to help cook and serve the more than 200 men, women and children who depend on St. Christine's for a hot meal. If you would like to join us on this day, please call or text Jeannine Little at (313)268-5181 or email jandjlittle@hotmail.com.

The group will meet in the Parish Office at 8:30am to carpool to St. Christine's and return around 3:00pm. Donations of juice boxes and individually wrapped desserts are needed for the children's bagged meal and monetary donations are always needed to help off-set the cost of the food served on this day.

We also provide desserts to complement the meal. These special diners really enjoy brownies, cakes, pie, cheesecake, and cupcakes. If you would like to donate homemade or store-bought baked goods, please drop them off to the Parish Office by Monday, June 30 no later than 1:00pm. A cart will be left in the hallway outside the office door for drop off.

St. Vincent de Paul

We are deeply blessed and grateful for the incredible generosity of our community. A heartfelt thank you to everyone who donated items to St. Vincent de Paul. Your kindness and compassion are truly inspiring.

A huge thank you to the amazing volunteers who dedicated their time and energy to make this happen. Your selflessness and hard work have touched many lives and brought hope to those in need.

Together, we are building a stronger, more compassionate community. May we continue to support and uplift each other with love and grace.

Blessings to all!
-SVDP Team at St. Frances Cabrini

He was born in present-day Turkey, the son of a pagan priest and a Christian mother. From a very young age, he displayed an explosive temper, which he learned to control. At a very young age, he was baptized and later ordained a deacon. His ministry was dedicated to teaching the faith, for he was a great teacher.

His bishop, noting his Christian and human qualities, wanted to ordain him a priest, but Ephrem opposed it, considering the priesthood unworthy of him. As a deacon and teacher, he spread Christian teaching with extraordinary writing skills, making use of poetry, religious songs, and parodying the lyrics of popular songs of his time to not only refute Christian heresies but also to propagate the teachings of Christ.

History distinguishes him with the nickname "The Zither of the Holy Spirit." Through his poetry, he founded a theological school.

Although he did not speak Greek, he was bold in his language, writing poems dedicated to Mary, Mother of God. His writings and mysticism made him one of the Doctors of the Church.

The 44th annual Catholic Services Appeal is underway. Gifts to the CSA help Unleash the Gospel through more than 100 important ministries, programs, and services.

Our parish's CSA target is our share of supporting CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services. Truly, these blessings touch parishes and the lives of thousands of people across the Archdiocese of Detroit - including many in our own parish. If we exceed our target, 100% of the excess will be returned directly to our parish.

THANK YOU to everyone who donated last week during our in-pew collection. If you did not have the opportunity to donate last week, please prayerfully consider making a pledge.

¡La campaña anual 44ª del Llamado al Servicio Católico está en marcha! Las donaciones para el CSA hacen Llegar el Evangelio a través de más de 100 ministerios, programas y servicios importantes.

La meta del CSA de nuestra parroquia es nuestra parte para apoyar los ministerios, programas y servicios financiados por el CSA. En verdad, estas bendiciones palpan diariamente las parroquias y las vidas de miles de personas en la Arquidiócesis de Detroit - incluyendo a muchos en nuestra propia parroquia.

GRACIAS a todos los que donaron en la colecta de la semana pasada. Para los que no tuvieron la oportunidad de donar aun, por favor consideren en oración hacer una donación.

Stewardship of Prayer Corresponsabilidad de Oracion

In today's first reading we encounter the Holy Spirit who at Pentecost came rushing in over Jesus' followers like a powerful wind. It must have been a frightening experience for them. But their great acts of prophetic witness began when the Spirit drew them out of their "comfort zones." This week, reflect on how the Holy Spirit may be calling you out of your personal comfort zone.

En la primera lectura de hoy encontramos al Espíritu Santo que en Pentecostés vino de manera precipitada sobre los seguidores de Jesús como un poderoso viento. Debe haber sido una experiencia atemorizante para ellos. Sin embargo sus grandes actos de testimonio profético empezaron cuando el Espíritu los sacó de su "zona de confort." Esta semana, reflexione sobre cómo el Espíritu Santo podría estar llamándole para salir de su zona personal de confort.

Stewardship of Time and Talent Corresponsabilidad de Tiempo y el Talento

Do you welcome visitors to your parish? Instead of rushing to Mass to be there on time, and then rushing out at its conclusion, make time to come a little early and linger just a bit later. Make room in your busy life to greet and spend time with others at Mass.

¿Recibe usted amablemente a los visitantes de su parroquia? En lugar de llegar apresuradamente para estar a tiempo en la misa, y apresurarse a salir al concluir, tome el tiempo para llegar temprano y permanecer un poco más tarde. Haga un espacio en su ocupada vida para saludar y pasar tiempo con otros en misa.

Domingo de Pentecostés

Enseñar y recorder

No soy muy bueno contando chistes. Me gustan, pero después de escuchar uno y reírme, lo dejo pasar y lo olvido. Me imagino que esto no sólo se aplica a los chistes. El Evangelio de hoy da a entender que los discípulos pueden haber tenido la misma debilidad cuando Jesús dice que el Espíritu “les enseñará todas las cosas y les recordará todo cuanto yo les he dicho” (Juan 14,26).

Jesús pasó tres años enseñando a sus discípulos acerca del Reino de Dios. Si bien puede haber condensado su mensaje a “Ama al Señor tu Dios... ama a tu prójimo como a ti mismo” (Marcos 12,30–31), pasó la mayor parte de su tiempo demostrándoles cuánto Dios los ama y cómo amar al prójimo. Utilizó parábolas como ejemplos y milagros como signos del amor del Padre. Respondió a sus preguntas y explicó las cosas en privado. Sabiendo que esto todavía no sería suficiente, prometió enviar al Espíritu después de haber resucitado. Parece que sabía que a veces no se puede aprender solo por escuchar. Hay que experimentar algunas cosas para entenderlas. A veces hay que explicarle algo a otra persona antes de entenderlo uno mismo. Y eso es lo que hacían los discípulos.

Cuando recibieron el Espíritu después de la resurrección de Jesús, comenzaron a hablar de Jesús a todos los que quisieran escucharlos. También comenzaron a hacer las cosas de las que Jesús hablaba. Alimentaron a los pobres y sanaron a los enfermos. Así comenzaron a experimentar a Jesús en quienes los rodeaban. Recordaban lo que Jesús les había enseñado y lo aplicaban a sus vidas. Incluso aceptaban el sufrimiento por la fe.

Nosotros también podemos recibir esa promesa de Jesús de que el Espíritu nos enseñe y nos recuerde. Mientras compartimos la fe con los demás, comenzamos a experimentar a Jesús en ellos. El hecho de hablar de la fe ayuda a que crezca.

Mientras escuchamos al Señor en la oración, recordamos pasajes de la Biblia que hemos leído o escuchado desde el altar el domingo. Comenzamos a entender cómo se aplican en nuestras vidas. Quizás recordemos cosas que parecían muy malas en el momento pero que resultaron ser parte del plan de Dios: tal vez perder un trabajo y luego encontrar uno mejor, o alejarnos de nuestros amigos por una mudanza y luego hacer nuevos amigos.

Que el Espíritu Santo nos enseñe y nos recuerde las señales del amor de Dios.

—Tom Schmidt

Lift Up Your Hearts

“Pentecost” literally means the fiftieth day, that is, roughly fifty days since Easter. The apostles and disciples of Jesus were gathered in their meeting room with the door locked.

They were afraid of what would happen to them, because of what happened to Jesus. Jesus knew how scared they were and so He came to settle their hearts: “Receive the Holy Spirit....”

The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord. They belong in their fullness to Christ, Son of David.

They complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them. They make the faithful docile in readily obeying divine inspirations.

The fruits of the Spirit are perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory.

The tradition of the Church lists twelve of them: “charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control and chastity.

May we be alert to recognize the activity of the Holy Spirit in our ever day lives.

It will often be recognized in the Gifts and the Fruits of the Holy Spirit.

May we thank God every day!

With love, Fr. Leo

Pentecost Sunday

Teach and Remind

I'm not very good at telling jokes. I like them, but after I hear one and laugh at it, I let it go and forget it. I suspect this doesn't just apply to jokes. The Gospel today hints that the disciples may have had the same weakness when Jesus says the Spirit will "teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (John 14:26).

Jesus spent three years teaching his disciples about the kingdom of God. While he may have condensed his message to "Love God . . . and love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:30-31), he spent most of his time showing them how much God loves them and how to love their neighbor. He used parables as examples and miracles as signs of the Father's love. He answered their questions and explained things privately. Knowing that this would still not be enough, he promised to send the Spirit after he had risen. He seems to have known that sometimes you just can't learn by listening. You have to experience some things to understand them. Sometimes you have to explain something to someone else before you understand it yourself. And that is what the disciples would do.

When they received the Spirit after Jesus' resurrection, they began to talk about Jesus to anyone who would listen. They also began to do the things Jesus talked about. They fed the poor and healed the sick. Thus they began to experience Jesus in those around them. They would remember what Jesus had taught them and apply it in their lives. They even accepted suffering for their faith.

We too can receive that promise from Jesus to have the Spirit teach and remind us. As we share our faith with others, we begin to experience Jesus in them. Just talking about our faith helps it to grow. As we listen to the Lord in prayer, we are reminded of passages in the Bible that we have read or heard from the altar on Sunday. We begin to understand how they apply in our lives. We may remember things that seemed to be very bad but turned out to be God's plan—maybe losing a job, only to find a better one; or moving away from friends, only to make new friends later.

May the Holy Spirit teach and remind us of the signs of God's love.

-Tom Schmidt
